

Mr Guy A. Surian
Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations & Intelligence
United States Army Criminal Investigation Command

Mr Guy A. Surian was born and raised in San Francisco, California. He attended Columbia Junior College and Humboldt State University, and was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1972. He served as a Military Policeman in Korea and Georgia before becoming a Criminal Investigator in 1974. He was accepted as a Warrant Officer in the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command in 1976. Significant duty assignments include three tours as special agent in charge of CID field elements (in Germany and CONUS), three tours as battalion operations officer (in Korea and CONUS), a tour as CID Task Force operations officer in Somalia, and two tours as an Inspector General. He culminated his military career in 2000 as a Chief Warrant Officer 5 assigned as the Chief of Current Operations and Policy for the CID command.

Mr Surian began his current duty as the deputy G-3 with USACIDC in October 2000. He manages the full range of oversight, policy, practices and procedures, training and resource issues with regard to criminal investigations, criminal intelligence, antiterrorism and force protection.

Mr Surian's education includes a full range of criminal investigative related courses, both military and civilian, all warrant officer professional development courses through the Warrant Officer Senior Staff Course, and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from Thomas Edison College, Trenton, New Jersey.

Mr Surian's major awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit; Meritorious Service Medal with six oak leaf clusters; Army Commendation Medal; Army Achievement Medal; National Defense Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters; Joint Meritorious Unit Award and Army Meritorious Unit Award.

Mr. Surian is married to the former Barbara Ann Peart of Coalinga, California. They have two children.